

Wildlife in Peril Vocabulary

Use the vocabulary in the boxes below to fill in the blanks.

recyclable	composting	impact
choices	reusable	environment
pollution	conserve	reduce

1. Most paper, plastic, and aluminum are _____.
2. Going green means making good _____ that help animals, plants and humans live in a healthy world.
3. By _____ food scraps, you can create nutrient rich soil in which to grow new plants and food.
4. Trash on the ground, oil and pesticides washed into water, and smog from cars are all types of _____.
5. You can _____ pollution by refusing to buy items with lots of plastic packaging.
6. Instead of taking plastic bags, bring a _____ bag and help save sea turtles who mistake plastic bags for jellyfish!
7. We depend on the _____ for food, water and shelter.
8. Human _____ can make a positive change in the world.
9. Help _____ water by taking showers that are 5 minutes or less.

Wildlife in Peril Vocabulary

Answers

Use the vocabulary in the boxes below to fill in the blanks.

recyclable	composting	impact
choices	reusable	environment
pollution	conserve	reduce

1. Most paper, plastic, and aluminum are recyclable.
2. Going green means making good choices that help animals, plants and humans live in a healthy world.
3. By composting food scraps, you can create nutrient rich soil in which to grow new plants and food.
4. Trash on the ground, oil and pesticides washed into water, and smog from cars are all types of pollution.
5. You can reduce pollution by refusing to buy items with lots of plastic packaging.
6. Instead of taking plastic bags, bring a reusable bag and help save sea turtles who mistake plastic bags for jellyfish!
7. We depend on the environment for food, water and shelter.
8. Human impact can make a positive change in the world.
9. Help conserve water by taking showers that are 5 minutes or less.

