

Bird Vocabulary

Use the vocabulary in the boxes below to fill in the blanks.

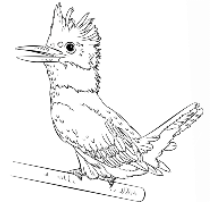

beak	waterfowl	wings
raptor	adaptation	torpor
rodents	nest	feathers

1. Another name for a bird of prey is a _____.
2. _____ are prey for many birds, they are distinguished by having four front teeth that continuously grow their entire lives.
3. A _____ is covered in a layer of keratin, the same substance that's in human hair and fingernails.
4. Hummingbirds lower their body temperatures and slow their heart rates down every time they go to sleep, this is called _____.
5. Geese, ducks, and swans are _____.
6. Flight, body, and downy are all types of _____.
7. A _____ can be built in a tree, in a tunnel underground, on a cliff, or floating on water.
8. Penguins have modified _____ that propel them through water.
9. An _____ is something that helps an animal survive in their habitat.

Bird Vocabulary ANSWERS

Use the vocabulary in the boxes below to fill in the blanks.

beak	waterfowl	wings
raptor	adaptation	torpor
rodents	nest	feathers

1. Another name for a bird of prey is a           raptor          .
2.           rodents           are prey for many birds, they are distinguished by having four front teeth that continuously grow their entire lives.
3. A           beak           is covered in a layer of keratin, the same substance that's in human hair and fingernails.
4. Hummingbirds lower their body temperatures and slow their heart rates down every time they go to sleep, this is called           torpor          .
5. Geese, ducks, and swans are           waterfowl          .
6. Flight, body, and downy are all types of           feathers          .
7. A           nest           can be built in a tree, in a tunnel underground, on a cliff, or floating on water.
8. Penguins have modified           wings           that propel them through water.
9. An           adaptation           is something that helps an animal survive in their habitat.

