

California Wildlife

WildCare visited and taught about California wildlife. Use the knowledge you learned to decide if the statements below are true or false.

True or False

Frogs are reptiles.

True or False

Leopard sharks like to eat people.

True or False

Rattlesnakes shake their tail as a warning to other animals that they will bite if they get too close.

True or False

King snakes got their name king from their ability to eat other snakes, including rattlesnakes.

True or False

Turkey Vultures are herbivores.

True or False

A baby deer is called a fawn.

True or False

The state bird of California is the California Quail.

True or False

Bobcats are a feline, related to other cats such as the mountain lion.

True or False

The Virginia Opossum can eat up to 5,000 ticks in just one season, greatly reducing the spread of Lyme disease in the wild.

76 Albert Park Lane, San Rafael, CA 94901
415-453-1000 www.discoverwildcare.org

Answers

California Wildlife

WildCare visited and taught about California wildlife. Use the knowledge you learned to decide if the statements below are true or false.

True or False

Frogs are reptiles.

True or False

Leopard sharks like to eat people.

True or False

Rattlesnakes shake their tail as a warning to other animals that they will bite if they get too close.

True or False

King snakes got their name king from their ability to eat other snakes, including rattlesnakes.

True or False

Turkey Vultures are herbivores.

True or False

A baby deer is called a fawn.

True or False

The state bird of California is the California Quail.

True or False

Bobcats are a feline, related to other cats such as the mountain lion.

True or False

The Virginia Opossum can eat up to 5,000 ticks in just one season, greatly reducing the spread of Lyme disease in the wild.

