

Ocean Adventures

Gray Whales are often covered in barnacles! They migrate a long distance in the ocean every year.

Harbor Seals have brown and gray fur. They are fast swimmers that eat fish, and are usually spotted resting out on the rocks in the San Francisco Bay!

